CEMETERY DEDICATION

On Sunday, May 5th, our worship service will include the dedication of The Universalist Cemetery behind the Federated Church.

Over the years, the gravestones have not been protected and many have been damaged. Until recently we have been unable to keep the faith that our church ancestors had in us to care for their graves.

Happily, that situation has been greatly improved by the addition of the fence surrounding the cemetery, which should help deter further damage. Cost had prevented the Church from acquiring fencing, but, through the efforts of church member, Pam Brown, we received a Community Preservation Act grant to fund the fencing and an assessment and mapping of the gravestones.

The work to evaluate the damaged stones has begun and we will have an opportunity to learn more about that process during the coffee hour following the service. We will be joined by Donna E. Walcovy, Ph. D. our consultant on gravestone preservation, who will talk about the project.

After, we are encouraged (weather and bumpy ground permitting) to stroll through the cemetery. Pam will provide American flags to place on our veterans' graves for Memorial Day. It will be a bit of a scavenger hunt to find the graves using photos Pam has taken.
