Women of Grace and Courage

Our summer sermon series explores the journeys of six women in the Bible, some may be new to you. These women of courage and grace, are prophets, leaders, advocates for justice and righteousness. Some even had to break with tradition to remain faithful to God's promises. Their names may not be familiar, but their stories are woven deeply into God's plan to reconcile the world unto God's self.

1. August 18, 2019. (Exodus 15:20-21, Numbers 12:1-15)

—Miriam, a prophet and spiritual leader, sister of Aaron and Moses.

2. August 25, 2019. (2 Kings 5:1-27)

—The Maid of Naaman's Wife, a foreigner and a servant who offers helpful counsel to her employer.
