World Communion Sunday

Today Christians from around the world will gather to celebrate the unity we share as Christ followers. We will read the Scripture text I John 2:15-17 in English, Spanish and Portuguese to reflect both the ecumenical and international character of our community, we will participate in the Lord's Supper with the Brazilian Presbyterian Church (PCUSA).

Rev Patrick Dugan, a missionary in Brazil since 1974, along with his wife Nedra, will preach the good news to us. Rev Dugan holds a bachelor's degree in Missiology from Bethany Global University and holds a master's degree in theology from Wheaton College. He teaches seminars in churches around Brazil. Rev Patrick and Nedra are extraordinary musicians who continue to use their talents and gifts to touch lives and nourish souls.

WANTED! We are looking for people who want to help with ushering and greeting at the Sunday services. Please write your contact information on the sign-up sheet posted on the bulletin board outside the church office. Thank you very much, Dot Sullivan

ALSO WANTED! We are also looking for folks to sign up as Lay Readers on Sunday. Please choose a Sunday and put your name on the list posted on the bulletin board outside the Church office. Robin will send you the reading via email or via mail (if you prefer) well in advance of the Sunday. And also there will be a copy placed on the Lectern for you.
